

Bereaved Parents of the USA

Anne Arundel County Chapter

January 2007

www.aacounty-md-bereavedparents.org

2007..... "Happy New Year," my friends wish me. And I mimic them back, "Happy New Year to you too." But what I'm really thinking is... "Are you CRAZY ???" How could I possibly have a happy year when I have lost my child? No, they're not crazy, many of my friends just don't know what it's like to lose a child. And what I really wish for them, is that they never know what the years are like for me now.

For us, tragedy has come into our lives, and the years are never the same as before. It's possible that our priorities change, our relationships change, and our daily lives change. Each of us faces the changes in our lives and finds ways to cope. There is no right or wrong way to cope with our grief, just our own individual way to make it through the years, often with the help of others.

Without our child, our lives morph into a new dimension... and a new direction. My life now includes many moments of spiritual reflection, perhaps yours does too..... When memories of our child consume us, when we long for just one more day with our child, when we get "pennies from heaven," when we catch a glimpse of a shadow across the room, when we feel the brush of a kiss on our cheek....

Each year, I have managed to find moments of peace that comfort my soul..... moments of joy that brighten my day..... and moments of love that will last forever.

As you face this new year, I wish you moments of peace, joy and love....forever.

GOALS OF BEREAVED PARENTS OF THE USA

- to educate families about the grief process and all its complexities as it applies to the death of a child at any age and from any cause.
- to aid and support those who are suffering such a loss, regardless of race, creed or financial situation.
- to provide a library at each meeting place where members may borrow books with up-to-date information about the grief process.
- to supply the telephone numbers of other bereaved parents, siblings and grandparents who are able to offer support to other more newly bereaved families.
- to inform and educate members of the helping professions who interact with bereaved parents as to the nature and duration of parent/sibling/grandparent bereavement.
- to provide monthly meetings with sharing groups and occasional informative programs.

Mailing and Thank you notes: Barbara Bessling
Treasurer: Fran Palmer - Hospitality: Carol Tomaszewski
Programs: Paul Balasic and Jane Schindler

It is our sincere hope that you will find comfort somewhere in this newsletter. It is our intention to offer you hope in knowing that you are not alone. We encourage you to write about your feelings and to share your feelings with others who understand.

Material to be printed "in memory of" must be sent to the editor 6-8 weeks in advance of the newsletter in which you wish the item to be printed.

February submissions are due by January 10.

Library:

Our lending library is available to help you understand and deal with your grief. Most of our materials have been donated in memory of a child. When you have finished with them, please return them at our monthly meeting or mail them to the post office box listed above. Thank you.

Refreshments at our monthly meetings:

A sign-up sheet is on the refreshment table at the meeting. Drinks, ice, and paper products are provided by the chapter. For information, contact Carol Tomaszewski at 410 519-8448.

CHAPTER NEWS AND NOTES

Sponsor Our Monthly Newsletter or Website

You can help underwrite the costs of our newsletter or our website by sponsoring a monthly issue of the newsletter or by sponsoring a month of the website. To sponsor either one, contact Dave (dralex@sdaalex.com). For the Newsletter, in 2007 full sponsorship of an issue of the newsletter is $200.00. Up to two people or families can sponsor an issue, and the cost will be divided equally - $100 each. If someone has already signed up for full sponsorship of a month, and another member would like to share in that month, they will be allowed to do so. Where there are more than two members or families wishing to sponsor an issue, preference will be given to members who did not sponsor an issue the previous year, otherwise it will be on a "first-come-first-serve" basis.

For the Website, sponsorship is $25.00 each month.

MEETING TOPICS NOTE:

Each of our monthly meetings follow the same basic format. We first have a general session attended by everyone. During this first one-half hour we usually have a speaker or panel addressing a topic of interest and value to families mourning the death of a child. Following the general session, we break up into sharing groups. We always have the sharing groups, and the topics they discuss -- particularly for the newly bereaved groups -- do not necessarily focus on the program topic unless it is relevant to the members in the sharing group. We try to cover a range of topics in the programs we schedule, so that over the year we will have covered many topics which are of value to a broad range of members.

Upcoming Meeting Topics

January 4: Happy New Year! – Revisiting the Grief Process Again

The January program will focus on looking ahead to the new year as we continue to deal with the loss of our children.

February 1: No program scheduled

We Can Always Use the Help!

There are dozens of tasks that go into running our chapter and our special events, from helping set up the chairs...to greeting new members when they first come in the door...to facilitating sharing groups...to identifying potential articles and poems for the newsletter...to mailing out invitations to one of our events...to working on public relations.... We can always use the help. If you feel you are now in a place in your grief journey where you can help and give back to the chapter in little or large ways, please contact Dave at 410-544-3634. Most of us find that when we reach a point of giving back to those who come after us, we gain far more than we give.

DO YOU USE AMAZON.COM?

If you use Amazon.com, perhaps you could use the Chapter's website to make the connection and purchase. We have a link to Amazon.com on the home page of our website. Amazon.com gives our chapter a commission of 5% of any purchases which are made through that link. Using the link does not increase the cost to the purchaser. Alert your friends, relatives, and colleagues to the link and suggest they use it as well.

You can access the site at:

www.aacounty-md-bereavedparents.org

Click on the butterflies on the welcome page to enter our site, and then scroll down the first page to the bottom. On the bottom left corner is the Amazon.com graphic. Clicking on the graphic takes you to Amazon.com's site. When it does so, it links information relevant to our chapter to the visit to the site. If a purchase is made, it will be credited to our site. Purchases made without going through that link do not get credited.

Since our chapter is a not-for-profit organization and has no dues or fees, we are dependent on donations and fund raisers. These commissions help fund some of our community outreach activities.

Donations: THANK YOU!

Donations may be made to offset the cost of printing and mailing the newsletter, the Chapter website, the annual Remembrance Service, the annual Conference of Hope and Healing, and books and other materials for the Chapter Library.

We gratefully acknowledge the following donations made in the last month:

General:

Lynn and Bill Durner in memory of their son Brian Edward Durner
Aimée and Bill Kilian in memory of their son Stephen William Kilian
Diane and Robert Royer in memory of their son Aaron Sebastian Royer

SIBLING PAGE

It's the Music That Bonds the Soul

The room you once lived in
Doesn't look the same.
The people who used to call you
Never mention your name.

The car you used to drive
They may not make them anymore.
And all the things you once treasured
Are boxed beyond the closet doors.

The clothes you set the trends by
Are surely out of date.
The people you owed money to
Have wiped away the slate.

Things have changed and changed again
Since you went away.
But some things have remained the same
Each and everyday –

Like this aching in my heart
A scar that just won't heal.
On the way a special song
Can change the way I feel.

Brother, you must know that the music
Bonds us and will keep us close
Because secretly I know deep in my heart
It's the music you miss the most.

So let the world keep on turning
And time can take its toll.
For as long as the music keeps playing
You'll be alive and dancing in my soul.

Sibling Thoughts

So many parents really want to do the right thing for their remaining children; but it is very hard when you are still in so much pain. Relatives and friends compound the problem by telling the siblings to be strong for their parent's sake. That is too much to ask of any sibling. We, too, are in pain and seeking comfort. We have lost not only a brother or sister; but our parents also, for they are now consumed by grief.

Dianne Workman, TCF, Norman OK

I am writing to announce the publication of my new book, Sibling Grief: Healing after the Death of a Sister or Brother. I am the director of the Sibling Connection, an organization that provides resources for bereaved siblings and have written many articles in Compassionate Friends newsletters. Called by Compassion Books "a moving, very readable guide -- one of the finest resources available on sibling grief, for individual or professional use."

From the back cover:

Author P. Gill White, PhD, was only fifteen when her sister Linda made her swear not to tell anyone about the pain Linda had in her side, because she thought it would spoil an upcoming family vacation. Linda died four months later from a rare form of cancer called rhabdomyosarcoma. White and her family never talked about the loss until decades later when memories began to haunt her. Sibling Grief is White's validation of the emotional significance of sibling loss. She draws on clinical experience, research, and wisdom from hundreds of bereaved siblings to explain the five healing tasks specific to sibling grief.

White identifies the effects of this profound loss on daily actions and emotions and describes the dream patterns of bereaved siblings, showing how healing is reflected in the dream state. Throughout, she illustrates the long-lasting connection between siblings—a connection that death itself cannot sever.

Sincerely,
P. Gill White, PhD , Director, The Sibling Connection

Compassion

Compassion is an angel
Who always gives her all,
She's there for every creature
Whether great or whether small.

At any time of day or night
Or any kind of storm,
She'll wrap her arms around your soul
To keep you safe and warm

Compassion swells within a heart
When someone is in pain,
It softly bears a rhythm
So gentle and humane.

No matter if it's man or beast,
Or what their tale of woe,
Compassion with her wings outstretched
Will help the healing grow.

Compassion has a kindness
Seen in every tender act.
So when you're kind to someone else
I tell you it's a fact...

Sometime she'll be around again
For all the angels say,
Compassion shown to others
Will be shown to you someday.

From the book "Believe"
By John W. Sisson

Bereaved parents are like ducks:
Above the surface.....
Looking composed and unruffled;
Below the surface.....
Paddling like crazy!

I Will Be

If you think of me as gone forever,
I will be.

If you think of me as sadness and tears,
I will be.

If you think of me as your broken heart,
I will be.

That's not what I want to be, but I will be.

If you think of me as memories to cherish,
I will be.

If you think of me as laughter and joy,
I will be.

If you think of me as your healing heart,
I will be.

That's what I want to be, please, let me be.

--The Compassionate Friends magazine,
Author unknown

And if I go, while you're still here... know that I live on, vibrating to a different measure, behind a thin veil you cannot see through.

You will not see me, so you must have faith, I wait for the time when we soar together again, both aware of each other.

Until then, live your life to its fullest and, when you need me, just whisper my name in your heart, I will be there.

New Year Goals

The holidays are over and I bet you're glad about that. You did make it through though, and by now maybe some of the stress of that powerful time has left you. Next year you will find you learned from this year, no matter how many years it has been and I hope it will be easier for you, too, in the years ahead.

If you made New Year's resolutions, I hope they included:

To try to take it one day at a time.

To forgive yourself for whatever it is you feel you did wrong.

To figure out ways to resolve your anger so you can let go of it.

To concentrate on and value what you have let go as much as what you have lost.

To let those you value know how important they are to you.

These are important steps forward. Try to be good to yourself in the New Year...
Mary Cleckley, TCF, Atlanta GA

Wintersong

*Season of lights, season of love and peace
Season of shadow, season of memories
Season of warmth & joy, season of secret tears;
Give us the courage to laugh again
Give us the vision to hope again
Give us the power to love again
For all our new seasons
And all our new years*

By Sascha Wagner, from her book "Wintersun"

No Words to Describe....

What do you call a woman whose husband dies?
...a widow

What do you call a man whose wife died?
...a widower

What do you call a child whose parents die?
..an orphan

What do you call a parent whose child dies?
There is no word to describe it!

---by Joe Gilliam, grandfather of Hayden Gilliam

Dear Abbey:

My only child passed away recently at a very young age. Amid all the pain, this one question nags at me. Am I still a mother?

WONDERING

Of course you are, Once a mother, always a mother. You are the mother of a little angel.

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

DATED MATERIAL

Bereaved Parents of the USA CREDO

We are the parents whose children have died. We are the grandparents who have buried grandchildren. We are the siblings whose brothers and sisters no longer walk with us through life. We come together as Bereaved Parents of the USA to provide a haven where all bereaved families can meet and share our long and arduous grief journeys. We attend monthly gatherings whenever we can and for as long as we believe necessary. We share our fears, confusion, anger, guilt, frustrations, emptiness and feelings of hopelessness so that hope can be found anew. As we accept, support, comfort, and encourage each other, we demonstrate to each other that survival is possible. Together we celebrate the lives of our children, share the joys and triumphs as well as the love that will never fade. Together we learn how little it matters where we live, what our color or our affluence is or what faith we uphold as we confront the tragedies of our children's deaths. Together, strengthened by the bonds we forge at our gatherings, we offer what we have learned to each other and to every more recently bereaved family. We are the Bereaved Parents of the USA.

We welcome you.
