My Dad is a Survivor

Dedicated to any man who has lost his child...

My dad is a survivor too...
which is no surprise to me.
He's always been like a lighthouse that helps you cross a stormy sea.
But, I walk with my dad each day to lift him when he's down.
I wipe the tears he hides from others.
He cries when no one's around.
I watch him sit up late at night,
with my picture in his hand.
He cries as he tries to grieve alone,
and wishes he could understand.
My dad is like a tower of strength.
He's the greatest of them all!
But there's times when he needs to cry...
Please be there when he falls.
Hold his hand or pat his shoulder...
and tell him it's okay.
Be his strength when he's sad,
Help him mourn in his own way.
Now, as I watch over my precious dad from the Heaven's up above...
I'm so proud that he's a survivor...
And, I can still feel his love!

We are a non-denominational, self-help support organization that is dedicated to assisting parents, siblings, aunts, uncles and grandparents toward the positive resolution of grief following the death of a child. We also aim to provide information and education to extended family, friends and coworkers desirous of being supportive to our Chapter members. We gather to listen, to care, and to understand the process of grieving as we start our recovery process and attempt to heal. Our greatest strength as bereaved families is the unity we find in shared experiences which can lead us out of isolation, give us a place to "belong", and offer us hope that together -- we can make it.

Chapter Facilitation Training

For many bereaved parents who attend our Chapter's monthly meetings, the Sharing Group portion of the evening has become an integral part of their healing process. It's the place where we learn that after the death of our child, what we feel is normal. It's where we learn to take our first steps toward dealing with our feelings of overwhelming loss and grief.

Our Chapter Facilitators and Sharing Group Helpers are the key to the success of this important portion of our meetings and at this time we are in need of additional volunteers. In order to expand the pool of people who currently serve in those roles, we have planned a training session tentatively set for Saturday, June 21, 2008.

If you are interested in becoming a Facilitator or Sharing Group Helper, or just want to learn more about what it means to be one or the other, please respond by Friday, June 6, 2008 (in order for us to prepare sufficient materials and advise you as to the session location and times). Please contact our Training Organizer Terre Belt via email tbelt@nahbrc.org or call her 410.721.1359.

Please consider helping us with this most important task!

There's a New Man in Town

My son is dead. The moment I was told my son died in an auto accident, there was a new man in town. The old man would find a way to fix "it" or at least make "it" better. The new man couldn't fix a thing. Oh, he could make arrangements, settle accounts, acknowledge condolences as though he were really there but the new man was far off, living in a protective shell hardened by disbelief and shock. Yes, he did things, but he didn't feel in the old ways, he was far off being reborn.

My wife's grief would bring the new man back, at least for a while. There was no fixing her, just acknowledgement of the hurt and pain and helplessness we both felt. I was there for her as she was there for me and we bonded in our grief at depths we did not know existed. My son did not die to make our marriage better or worse and his death did not change what it fundamentally was and is. There is however a new level where we meet to hurt and heal together.

When a baby is born there are pain and tears followed by profound joy. If that baby dies before his parents, there is pain and tears and a longing for peace. No man can anticipate the number of tears that will flow during his rebirth. The half hour drive to work each morning was a time of nothing but tears and pain and guardian angels to provide safety for myself and those around me. The new man was every bit the good driver the old man was, but he wasn't there, he was far off being reborn in those unstoppable tears. Peace was nowhere to be found.

I am not going into detail into the many ways I think I have changed. Believe me, I have changed and so have you fellow bereaved father. I cannot believe my son died to make me a better man. I do believe that my son's death shocked me into holding dear all that was always precious to me with the new knowledge that "it" can all end in an instant, and neither the old man nor the new man can ever fix "it." The protective shell is fading away and real peace is finding its way into my heart and soul. But the shell will never be completely gone and the peace will never blend into complacency. We are new men with new priorities and new things to do. This does not mean we abandon all that was of the old man, the newness is in our attitudes and understanding and acceptance of vulnerability.

The Condo

509 East Breakaway
 The perfect ocean getaway
 Five floors up
 A balcony to sit on
 And drink ice tea from
 And count waves from

The boys were here this weekend
 It was a joy to spend some time
 Not boys anymore
 They've grown to men
 But you're still our baby
 It will always be so
 15 forever and ever so it goes

With Chris and Jon
 The condo was too small
 Bumping into each other
 With the occasional sharp word

Three men and your mom
 It was a tight fit
 But now that they're gone
 There is too much space
 The condo's too big for her, me and you.

Tears In Heaven

Would you know my name
 If I saw you in heaven?
 Would it be the same
 If I saw you in heaven?
 I must be strong
 And carry on,
 'Cause I know I don't belong
 Here in heaven.

Would you hold my hand
 If I saw you in heaven?
 Would you help me stand
 If I saw you in heaven?
 I'll find my way
 Through night and day,
 'Cause I know I just can't stay
 Here in heaven.

Time can bring you down,
 Time can bend your knees.
 Time can break your heart,
 Have you begging please, begging please...
 Beyond the door,
 There's peace I'm sure,
 And I know there'll be no more
 Tears in heaven.

Would you know my name
 If I saw you in heaven?
 Would it be the same
 If I saw you in heaven?
 I must be strong
 And carry on,
 'Cause I know I don't belong
 Here in heaven.

I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love.

SIBLING PAGE

(The Best of) Ask Dr. Paulson

Q My sister and my father have both died. They are the only people my mother has pictures of on display.

Mom has four living children and many grandchildren, but their pictures are never displayed. What can I do?

A I often hear from surviving siblings that their parents put up lots of pictures or very large pictures of their brothers or sisters who died. This is often very difficult for the surviving children. They ask questions like: What about me—I'm still living, don't I count? Aren't you proud of me? How do I compete with a ghost? Don't you care that it's difficult for me to see his or her picture all the time? How can I ever get them to love me as much as they love my brother or sister who died? This is the important part that you need to talk about—how it makes you feel and what you think when you see these pictures up around the house. What do you feel? What do you think about yourself? What do you think about your relationship with your mom? What do you think about your mom's love for you? We can talk about why your mother only puts up pictures of your father and sister who died, but the most important part is how this is affecting you. This is what you need to talk about with your mother.

Although understanding why parents only put up pictures of their children who died should not be the main focus of my reply, a brief explanation may be helpful. Generally there are two main reasons: 1) Parents are afraid that their children who died will be forgotten and everything will go on as if they never lived; and 2) this is one way to keep them in their lives everyday. Parents see, talk with, or know they can reach their living family members anytime, but this is one way that they can keep their children who died alive in their hearts everyday. But again, understanding why should be only a small part of your focus. The main thing is that you communicate with your mom how this makes you think and feel. Talk with your mom about your thoughts and feelings. You'll be surprised how this will help your relationship grow stronger.

You live in the beautiful wind that blows.
 You live in the sound of birds that crow.
 You live in the sun that shines so bright.
 You live in the peaceful dark at night.
 You live in a star I see in the sky.
 You live in ocean waves that come in with the tide.
 You live in the smell of flowers and grass.
 You live in the summer that goes so fast.
 You live in my heart that hurts so much.
 You did not die, we only lost touch.

To My Husband

Your tears flow within your heart,
 Mine flow down my cheeks.
 Your anger lies with thoughts and movements,
 Mine gallops forward for all to see.
 Your despair shows in your now dull eyes,
 Mine shows in line after written line.
 You grieve over the death of your son,
 I grieve over the death of my baby.
 But we're still the same, still one,
 Only we grieve at different times,
 Over different memories, and at different lengths.
 Yet we both realize
 The death of our child.

LIFE

Life is a gift to be used every day,
 Not to be smothered and hidden away;
 It isn't a thing to be stored in the chest
 Where you gather your keepsakes
 And treasure your best;
 It isn't a joy to be sipped now and then
 And promptly put back in a dark place again.
 Life is a gift that the humblest may boast of
 And one that the humblest may well make the most of.
 Get out and live it each hour of the day,
 Wear it and use it as much as you may;
 Don't keep it in niches and corners and grooves,
 You'll find that in service its beauty improves.

Photo Buttons

At our Chapter meetings and other events, you may have seen some members wearing buttons with photos of their children and perhaps you would like one as well. The Chapter owns a machine to make these buttons and one of our volunteers would be happy to make one for you with your child's photo. The photo you send to Bobbi may be larger than the button area, just indicate the portion of the photo you wish included on the button.

We ask that you send a check for $2.00 per button with your order, which covers the cost of materials and return mailing. Please be sure to include your name, address and your phone number in case Bobbi has any questions about the preparation of the button. Bobbi will cut the area of the original photo to fit the button. Please allow two weeks for delivery.

This is the size (height 2¼", width 2¼") of the photo buttons being offered. Please send a photo to fit this size. One photo per button.

Suggested donation:
 $2 per button

Send your information and pre-payment to: Bobbi Remines, 14871 Hideaway Lane, Goldsboro, MD 21636

WHAT TO EXPECT AT OUR CHAPTER MEETINGS

Our Chapter gathers one evening a month to address topics and offer support to those who are mourning the death of a child. Our meetings last for approximately 2 hours. At the beginning of our meeting, we regularly schedule a 30 minute presentation to address a topic that we hope is of interest and value to many of our Chapter members. When the speaker or panel has concluded their presentation, you will be invited to introduce yourself and then say your child's name - but only if you are able to participate in this manner. We then take a short break before dividing into sharing groups.

These sharing groups are facilitated by fellow Chapter members and are completely confidential. During this time the issues that are discussed - particularly for the newly bereaved - do not necessarily have to focus on the evening's topic, unless it is relevant to the group.

Please see page 2 of this newsletter for more details including our meeting location and other helpful information. If you have questions please contact our Chapter leader Dave Alexander (410.544.3634 or dralex@sdalex.com).
